A Word From Our President

Welcome to Des Moines!

I am grateful that you have taken time out of your busy schedule to join fellow Lutherans who Love Life! Our theme this year is L.I.F.E. – Living In Faith Everyday.

I wish I could report that being a Christian living in our 21st century culture has become easier, but it hasn't. It seems that attacks on Christians are increasing and we are being asked to compromise and not live according to our faith. Two quick examples come to mind.

- The HHS mandate requires coverage of contraception and abortifacients in employer health coverage. Christian owners of businesses such as Hobby Lobby and other para-church institutions are being told that religious freedom does not apply in these circumstances and that they must violate their religious beliefs or face huge penalties from the government.
- Christian business owners who refuse, on the basis of religious beliefs, to provide ancillary services such as photography or floral arrangements in same sex “marriage” ceremonies are being coerced by the courts into participating.

So how do you L.I.F.E.?

Well that's what you came to find out! How do you live out your faith when faced with end-of life decisions that need to be made for a loved one? How can you protect your family? What about exercising your religious freedom? There are workshops and speakers who will help you answer some of these questions—along with great fellowship that will encourage you as you return to your communities to face the challenges of L.I.F.E. every day.

But most important, the God whom we will worship during this conference remains in charge. We live in H.O.P.E. – Having Optimism Pending Eternity. Because no matter what happens we know that He loves us and our future is secure. You have been blessed with a mission and ministry to show your neighbors, your friends, your relatives, and your community what L.I.F.E. looks like. What a blessing to be chosen for such work by our God.

So joyfully, L.I.F.E.

Serving the Lord of Life with you,

Diane Schroeder
President

During the conference, participants will be given an additional opportunity to support the organization.

Thank you for prayerfully considering how you, your family, and congregation can help.

How do we live out our biblically-based, For Life convictions in this culture? Our 2013 Lutherans For Life National Conference will help you do that as we focus on L.I.F.E.—Living In Faith Everyday.

Pre-Conference Events • Friday, November 8

Luncheon: L.I.F.E. in the Pulpit. This event, open to pastors and their wives, will be a time of fellowship, good food, an encouraging word from LFL board member, Colonel John Eidsome (on "Abortion, the Two Kingdoms, and the IRS") and LFL's executive director, Rev. Dr. James Lamb—and an opportunity to ask questions.

Life Team Seminar with Rev. Doug Merkey – This workshop will be a time of encouragement, sharing, and education for the "hands and feet" of LFL!

Christian Estate Planning with Jim Schroeder – This seminar will focus on how you can testify to your Christian faith and provide for your family and your favorite ministries.

Y4Life with Laura Davis: Open to all high school and college students. Learn how to answer THE question of our generation—why should we be For Life? Includes practical ways to defend your For Life beliefs in your school and community as well as fun activities to get to know the other students at the conference!

Y4Life Youth Servant Event Saturday, November 9: Continuing from the pre-conference activities, the Y4Life Servant event will give all high school and college student conference participants an opportunity to put what they have learned into action and serve at life-affirming ministries in the Des Moines area.

2013 LFL CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 2013

Workshops A: 1, 6, 7, 4

Workshops B: 1, 6, 2, 3

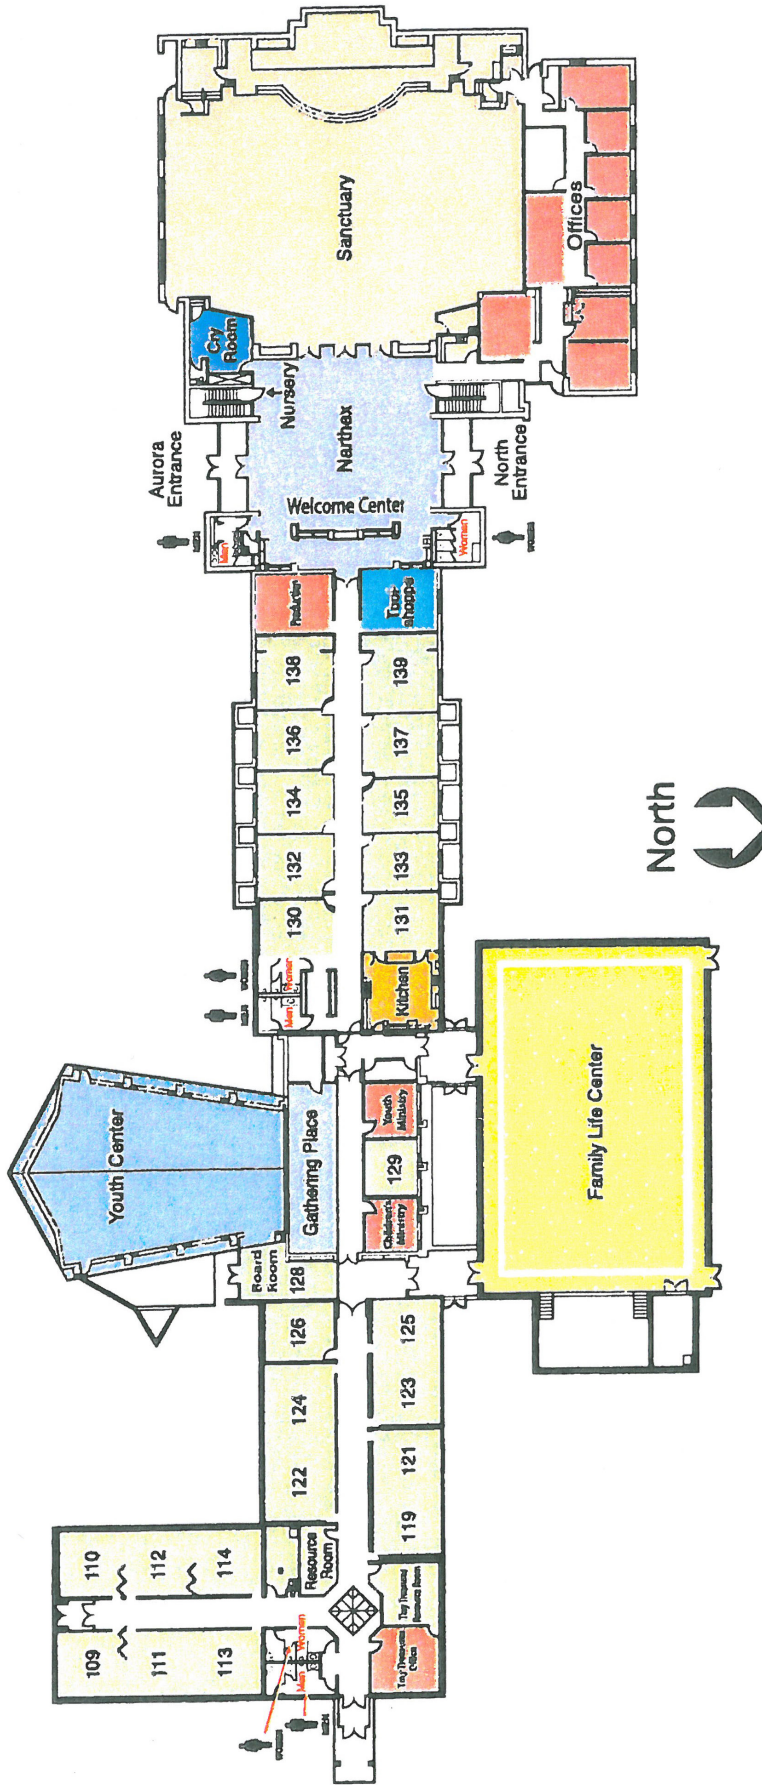

Workshops C: 4, 7, 5, 3

- 1. Linda Bartlett: L.I.F.E. as male and female – The world identifies us as sexual beings. But, in light of our baptism, vocation, and sanctification, who does God say we are? Who are we for eternity? What happens if we live under mistaken identity? Our sexuality is God’s gift for use within the boundaries of marriage, but living as male and female is not reserved for marriage. What does this mean?
- 2. Laura Davis: L.I.F.E. with youth – Practical tips on how to engage Generation Y, our high school and college students, in the For Life movement.
- 3. Jenny Farrell: L.I.F.E. after abortion – Moving beyond the barriers of judgement and shame in order to minister to those suffering from the pain of abortion.
- 4. Chris Lamb: L.I.F.E. with technology – Focusing on what you need to be aware of to protect yourself and your family when interacting in the online environment.
- 5. Jim Lamb: L.I.F.E. at the end of life – A look at theological and practical issues regarding the end of life.
- 6. Peter Preus: L.I.F.E. and suicide – A scriptural, confessional, Lutheran perspective, addressing the paradox of Christians committing suicide.
- 7. John Talley: L.I.F.E. and religious freedom – A look at increasing attacks on religious freedom in the United States.

Conference Speakers and Workshop Leaders

Linda Bartlett is the wife of Paul, the mother of two sons and two daughter-in-laws, and the grandmother of six grandchildren. Linda is a homemaker, writer, and speaker. She has been involved in the ministry of Lutherans For Life on the local, state, and national levels. She served on the national board of LFL for 18 years, nine of them as president. In 2004, Linda stepped down from the role of LFL president to start Titus 2 for Life. At retreats, in Bible studies, on radio, and through a website and blog, this ministry uses the model of Titus 2 in mentoring biblical manhood and womanhood (titus2-4life.org and ezerwoman.wordpress.com). Linda is the co-founder of the Lighthouse Center of Hope, a caring pregnancy center in Iowa Falls, Iowa, and serves as president of its board. Linda is the author of Bible studies, devotionals, and booklets including Men, Women and Relationships; Dressing for Life: Secrets of the Great Cover-up; Into His Loving Care; Not Alone and more (available through Concordia Publishing House, or www.Titus2-4life.org).

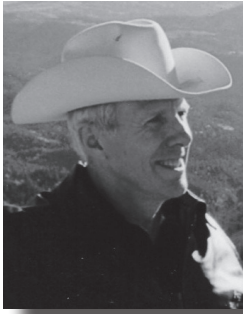

Laura Davis joined the Life Team in June 2012. She is the daughter of a Lutheran pastor and a Lutheran preschool teacher from Katy, Texas. She received a Bachelor of Arts in history from Texas A&M University in 2010 and a Master of Public Service and Administration at A&M's Bush School of Government and Public Service in 2012, with an emphasis on non-profit management. She was a volunteer and sidewalk counselor with the Brazos Valley Coalition for Life and an active member of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League, serving as a Zone Young Women's Representative. She completed an internship at a pregnancy resource center in Lynnwood, Washington, and has previously served on the National Board of Directors for Lutherans For Life. She currently resides in Arnold, Missouri, where she attends St. John Lutheran Church and is active in the music ministry.

Steve Deace has been described as the Iowa Caucus kingmaker by both Fox News and David Brody at CBN. Though he doesn't fancy himself a kingmaker, Steve Deace is one of the emerging stars in nationally-syndicated talk radio with an uncompromising message based on the Word of God and America's most cherished traditions. A pro-life warrior, Deace has written numerous pro-life articles and commentaries for national publications like USA Today, Townhall, and Politico. Recently named a contributor to the conservative powerhouse Washington Times, Deace's show airs in top markets each weeknight like New York, Washington D.C., Houston, Seattle, Philadelphia, and Atlanta. He lives here locally with his wife, Amy, and they've been married for 16 years. They have three children: Ana, Zoe, and Noah.

Conference Speakers and Workshop Leaders

John Eidsmoe is a retired Air Force Lt. Colonel and Alabama State Defense Force Colonel, Headquarters Judge Advocate, and Deputy Chaplain. He is a Professor of Law at the Oak Brook College of Law and Government Policy, and in his various teaching assignments his students have given him the Outstanding Professor Award or Prof of the Year Award five times. He has served as Senior Staff Attorney at the Alabama Supreme Court and is currently Legal Counsel for the Foundation for Moral Law. He is an ordained pastor with the Association of Free Lutheran Congregations and serves on the Board of Lutherans for Life and on the Board of the Plymouth Rock Foundation, and is a constitutional attorney who has defended home schools, Christian schools, the right of students to study the Bible in public schools, and the right of public officials to display the Ten Commandments. He has authored 14 books and numerous audio and video lecture series. He holds six academic degrees in law, theology and political science, as well as graduating from the Air Command & Staff College and the Air War College. He is Third Degree Black Belt with the American Taekwondo Foundation, a Fifth Degree Black Belt with the Gospel Martial Arts Union, and a Fifth Degree Black Belt with Black Belts of the Faith International. Colonel Eidsmoe is an avid horseman and skier. He and his wife Marlene have been married since 1970, have three children (David, Kirsten, and Justin), and live in rural Pike Road, Alabama.

Jenny Farrell is a natural communicator and storyteller, with a unique ability to connect with her audience. Drawing from her journey out of fear and anxiety, she offers the hope and healing found in Jesus Christ. She is passionate about seeing people set free, and specializes in women's events and retreats, as well as life-affirming conferences. As a registered nurse performing limited ultrasounds at a local pregnancy center, Jenny shares her insights regarding the pain of abortion. She is also an author and pastor's wife, and currently lives in Iowa.

The Rev. Dr. Matthew C. Harrison was first elected to the office of The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod president in 2010 and was re-elected in 2013. Harrison joined the staff at the LCMS International Center in St. Louis in 2001 as the executive director of the church's former World Relief and Human Care ministry. Previously, Harrison served as a pastor at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Westgate, Iowa (1991-1995), and Zion Lutheran Church in Fort Wayne, Indiana (1995-2001). Harrison graduated with a bachelor's degree in religious studies from Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa, in 1984. Following his graduation, he and his wife, Kathy, spent a year as missionaries in a remote Canadian Cree Indian village with the Lutheran

Association of Missionaries and Pilots. Harrison went on to earn a Master of Divinity in 1989 and a Master of Sacred Theology in 1991, both from Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne. In 2011, he received two honorary doctorates: a Doctor of Laws from Concordia University, Ann Arbor, Mich., and a Doctor of Divinity from Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne. He is a prolific writer whose books include A Little Book on Joy, a devotional-style book about finding delight in living a Christ-centered life in today's society, and Christ Have Mercy: How to Put Your Faith in Action, a book urging Christians to consider the innumerable opportunities they have to show mercy to fellow Christians and to anyone God places in their path. Harrison and his wife live in Ballwin, Missouri, and are members of Village Lutheran Church in Ladue, Missouri, where Harrison also serves as assistant pastor. They have two sons. Harrison is an avid banjo player and instrumentalist who makes guitars, banjos, and mandolins.

Chris Lamb is a graduate of DeVry University with a B.S. in Computer Information Systems. Immediately following college, Chris served in the United States Air Force as a Communications Officer at Peterson AFB, Colorado Springs, Colorado. After separating from the USAF, Chris worked as a consultant providing software development and network management training and services in the Kansas City area before serving as the CIO for a “dot com.” Chris left the private sector in 2004 to join the FBI as a Special Agent. Chris first served in Springfield, Illinois, working a combination of public corruption and cyber violations before transferring to San Antonio where Chris rejoined his USAF colleagues on a Cyber Joint Task Force. In 2010, Chris, his wife Meridith, and children, Jamie and Zane, returned home to Kansas City where he continues to work cyber violations. While with the Bureau, Chris obtained a Masters in Psychology and is currently writing his dissertation for a PhD in Information Assurance/IT Security.

Rev. Dr. James I. Lamb grew up in the small, southern Minnesota town of Good Thunder. There he married his childhood sweetheart, RoxAnne. The Lambs have been blessed with two sons and two daughters-in-law, a granddaughter, Jamie, and grandsons, Luke, Grant, and Zane. Dr. Lamb and RoxAnne live in State Center, Iowa. Dr. Lamb received a B.A. in Biology from Mankato State University in 1973. In 1975 he enlisted in the USAF and served as an Emergency Medical Technician at the USAF Academy Hospital in Colorado Springs. He entered Concordia Seminary, Saint Louis in 1978, served his vicarage year at St. Paul, Royal Oak, Michigan, and graduated with a Master of Divinity in 1982. In 1994 he received his Doctor of Ministry from Concordia, Saint Louis. Prior to accepting the position of Executive Director of National Lutherans For Life in April, 1996, Dr. Lamb served as senior pastor at St. Paul, Garner, Iowa, for fourteen years. During this time he also served as Circuit Counselor, member of the board of directors for Lutheran Family Service of Iowa, chairman of the board of directors for a community/school youth program, spiritual advisor for a local Lutherans For Life chapter, and chaplain of the Garner Volunteer Fire Department. He presently serves on the Sanctity of Life Committee for the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod Life Ministries. He is the author of numerous brochures, articles, and essays connecting God’s Word of Life to the life issues.

Pastor Doug Merkey graduated with a degree in Marketing from Penn State University in 1989. After several years in the corporate world, he obtained his Master of Divinity from Covenant Theological Seminary in St. Louis in 1999. His awareness of God’s love for all human life—born and unborn—came while in seminary. Since then, Doug has worked as the college and career pastor and pastor of the Life Team at Twin Oaks Presbyterian Church. He has served on the board of Thrive, St. Louis, a local organization that helps men and women in crisis pregnancies or who are struggling with having chosen abortion. In January, 2008, Doug was called by Twin Oaks to launch Churches for Life (www.getintolife.org), an organization that exists to nourish churches as gospel-driven champions of life. Doug counts it his special joy to help Christians see themselves as those who have been rescued by God's amazing love in Christ, and who respond to that love by living humble, joyful people who likewise look to rescue others.

Rev. Peter Preus was born on August 13, 1955, in Fosston, Minnesota, moving a short time later to St. Louis, Missouri, where his father served as a professor at Concordia Seminary. There he spent his years as a youth. He is the fifth of ten children born to Dr. and Mrs. Robert Preus. Pastor Preus was ordained into the Lutheran ministry in July of 1982, having attended Concordia Theological Seminary. During his third year of seminary training (vicarage), Pastor Preus met Jean Lower, a Lutheran day school teacher whom he married in July of 1981. Pastor Preus and Jean were blessed with six children, before Jean was called to her heavenly home on September 4, 1994, having committed suicide. Pastor Preus remarried in May of 1997 to Julie Lams who also had served as a Lutheran day school teacher. Pastor Preus has served congregations in Casey, Iowa; Mayville, Wisconsin; and Sanford, Michigan. He has been serving The Lutheran Church of the Triune God in Brooklyn Center, Minnesota, since July of 1999.

Jim Schroeder grew up on a farm at Laurel, Nebraska. He is a graduate of Concordia College, Seward, Nebraska, with a Master's Degree from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. Jim taught in Lutheran schools and coached for four years. He spent ten years as a district representative and general agent for Aid Association for Lutherans before called by the LCMS Foundation in 1989. He and his wife, Sue, have four children: Lukas, Timothy, Mindee, and Adam. Jim is giving a portion of his time as a Christian Estate Planning Counselor for the LCMS Foundation to LFL. He is offering his services to help those who have connections to LFL develop their Lifetime Plan for Giving. There is no charge for his services and LFL pays his expenses. So if you or someone you know would like some help in the area of estate planning, please contact Jim directly (jschroeder@lutheransforlife.org; 515.490.7371.)

John Talley graduated from John Marshall Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. His bachelor's degree is from Wheaton College. He was vice president and legal counsel for The ServiceMaster Company and is now in private practice. John is increasingly aware of great needs—both legal and at the intersection of legal with biblical/spiritual—within individual congregations and in denominations and is working to focus his practice toward the not-for-profit sector (particularly church law across many denominations). His practice also includes business law, real estate, estates and other general practice areas. John conducts a seminar series entitled The Word, The Church & The Law for leaders (not simply pastors) in denominations, their districts, and their congregations. He also teaches a church law course in the Association of Free Lutheran Congregations Seminary in Minneapolis and is also a member of the AFLC Schools Board of Trustees. He and Beth live just west of the burg of Helmar in rural Newark, Illinois. They have three children (all married) and have nine—soon to be 10—grandchildren!
