“You can be a voice of prayer praying for our Church, our country, hurting people.

You can be a voice of service reaching out to those who need an encouraging word, a helping hand, a comforting presence.

You can be a voice of education helping others understand how God’s Word of truth and grace connects to the life issues.

You can be a voice of witness pointing people to the true source of rescue ...”

*Rev. Dr. James I. Lamb, former executive director of
Lutherans For Life*
